

WBAI-FM First Quarter 2014 July 1st - September 30th

Note: This listing is by no mean exhaustive

Subject Covered	Program Name	Description/Local Relevance	Broadcast Date/Time/Duration
Minority Group Issues
	First Voice Indigeneous Radio	N. BIRD RUNNING WATER, Director, Native American and Indigenous Program. Born of the Cheyenne and Mescalero Apache peoples, Runningwater was reared on the Mescalero Apache Reservation in New Mexico.	07/09/2014 9:00 AM 1 hour
	The Jourdan Journal	Tanya Hernandez Fordham University Law Professor discusses her book Racial Subordination in Latin America: The Role of the State, Customary Law, and the New Civil Rights Response and an upcoming panel on Whiteness in the Americas. Also Angelo Falcon President of the National Institute on Latino Policy on how race is utilized by the Census?	09/12/2014 3:00 pm 2 hours
	The Jourdan Journal	Rosa Clemente an Afro-Puerto Rican community organizer, journalist, and Hip Hop activist and ran as the Green Party's Vice-Presidential candidate in 2008. A Doctoral student, at the W.E.B. Du Bois Department of Afro-American Studies, UMASS-Amherst.	08/22/2014 3:00 pm 2 hours
Health Issues
	The Positive Mind	Rejection and Loneliness	07/10/2014 1:00 pm 1 hour
	The Positive Mind	The Manic Type and Robin Williams	08/12/2014 1:00 pm 1 hour
	The Positive Mind	Possessiveness	08/16/2014 1:00 pm 1 hour
Environment
	Ecologic	Pete Seeger's grandson, Kitama Cahill-Jackson, along with Tom Chapin and the Chapin Sisters (Lillian and Abigail) singing, playing, remembering Pete and Toshi Seeger	07/08/2014 08:00 pm 1 hour
	In Other News	The Practical Guide to Free Energy Devices is the title of Patrick Kelly's ebook. It's about one million words with nearly 3000 illustrations and it's probably one of the only places you'll find information about free energy devices, how they work, and who invented them, consolidated in one place	08/18/2014 11:00 pm 1 hour

	Law & Disorder	Eleanor Stein, teaches a course called the Law of Climate Change: Domestic and Transnational at Albany Law School and SUNY Albany, in conjunction with the Environmental and Atmospheric Sciences Department at SUNY. Eleanor Stein is teaching transnational environmental law with a focus on catastrophic climate change	9/01/2014 9:00:00 AM 1 hour
	Green Street	What's happening in New York with fracking? When will Governor Cuomo decide whether to permit fracking in New York State, and why will fracking impact the citizens of New York even if the Governor doesn't approve it?	08/12/2014 8:00 pm 1 hour
Peace and Justice
	Law & Disorder	Last week we interviewed Phil Weiss of Mondoweiss and talked about the media's role in reporting facts and detailing the history around the escalating violence against Palestinians by the Israeli military.	7/28/2014 9:00:00 AM 1 hour
Women and Family
	The Positive Mind	Men who are married to their mothers	08/14/2014 1:00 pm 1 hour
	Art Express	Good People: Kate Hudson Wears The Pants, Perfecting Ballsy Moves Against Bad Guys	08/05/2014 2:00 m 1 hour
Economics			